Foreword

THE HOLY BIBLE is God's Word addressed to us now, in our own life situation, for our instruction and for our formation in Christ. While the Bible does not give us all the answers we need for living, it does give us inspired guidance and a powerful spirituality. In fact, our friends in Marriage Encounter, a renewal movement in the Church for married couples, tell us that these inspired books are God's love letters to us. How true that is.

The Bible has been described as the Instruction Manual, drawn up by God, for Christian living. That also is true. As some people make the mistake of looking at an instruction manual only after all else has failed, so we creatures can make the mistake of turning to the Bible only after our lives have fallen apart. The right way to live is to read the Bible regularly in order to learn how to live, in order to avoid making mistakes that could lead us into sin.

That is why I have regularly instructed the people of the Archdiocese of Hartford to do daily Bible readings during Lent and Advent. I have also recommended to my people the yearly Bible readings of the American Bible Society. Therefore, I warmly commend this plan of daily Bible readings. Like the rain that comes down from above, may these readings bring the Word of God into your soul. May they nourish your spiritual life with God's abundant blessings.

—The Most Reverend John F. Whealon
Archbishop of Hartford

Introduction

HOW TO READ THE BIBLE EVERY DAY is designed to help Catholics read Scripture daily at their own pace. It includes three reading plans and a supplemental list of seasonal readings for the church year.

The one-year plan, which covers the entire Bible in one year, is ideal for those who are reading Scripture regularly. The daily reading time averages 20-30 minutes. On the other hand, the three-year plan is ideal for those who want to start reading Scripture regularly. The daily reading time averages only 5-7 minutes, and the entire Bible is covered within three years. The two-year reading plan, which is keyed to the church year and covers the entire Bible in two years, is ideally suited for those who want to follow the daily readings of the liturgy. The reading time for this plan averages 10-15 minutes every day.

How to Read the Bible Every Day also includes a list of Scripture readings for the special liturgical seasons of the church year: Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. These seasonal readings can be profitably used with any of the three reading plans.

Readers who use this guide should take note that all of the scriptural references by chapter and verse follow the numbering scheme of the revised edition of the New American Bible, including the new translation of the New Testament. The correct numbering of chapters and verses for readings may vary slightly at times if another version of the Bible is used.

Finally, Catholics are expected to use a Bible with an imprimatur in their study of Scripture, preferably one with helpful introductions and footnotes. Both the New American Bible and the Jerusalem Bible, which include introductions and footnotes, meet these qualifications.

Part Three

The Three-Year Reading Plan (The Bible in Three Years.)

Daily Reading Time averages 5-7 minutes. This reading plan is particularly suited to those who are just beginning to read Scripture every day. The short daily readings will help the beginner develop a pattern of regular Scripture reading and study.

Additional Scripture Readings for the Special Liturgical Seasons of the Church Year

(Seasonal Readings for Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter)

These readings for the liturgical seasons can be profitably used with any of the three reading plans during the church year. But there will occasionally be some overlap with the readings covered by all three plans, particularly with the two-year plan, since that plan is keyed to the daily readings of the liturgical year.

A Bible Reading Plan for Catholics!

Through the Bible in One, Two, or Three Years

How to Read the Bible Every Day helps Catholics read through the entire Bible, including the Deuterocanonical Books. It includes an easy-to-use plan for beginners as well as plans for those already reading Scripture regularly. It even includes a supplemental reading plan keyed to the special seasons of the church year.

The three-year plan involves only 5-7 minutes a day of reading the Bible. Two-year and one-year reading plans give the more ambitious reader the opportunity to read Scripture 10-15 or 20-30 minutes a day. The two-year plan follows the daily readings of the liturgy.

How to Read the Bible Every Day also includes these helpful features:

- Its compact size means you can easily slip it inside your study Bible.
- Each of the reading plans is laid out in attractive, easy-to-read monthly charts.

Here is an invaluable guide for Catholics who want to read the Bible every day and grow in their understanding of God's Word.

Carmen Rojas, compiler of The Catholic Book of Bible Promises, trains lay Catholics to lead Bible study groups in the Philippines and taught Scripture courses for nine years at the College of the Holy Spirit in Manila.

"Catholics have long been encouraged by the saints, popes, and ecumenical councils to read and study God's Word found in the Bible. This book provides a realistic plan that enables people at different stages of exposure to the Bible to read God's Word daily."

—Alan Schreck

Author of Catholic and Christian

"Many Catholics have started to read the Bible from cover to cover and have gotten lost in the process. Servant Publications now offers a practical tool to help them carry out their ambition in an orderly way."

—Richard T.A. Murphy, O.P.
